

Fall Raffle 2012

Birdsong's Fundraising Committee has obtained the following outstanding raffle prizes from some very generous individuals and businesses. Winning tickets will be drawn at Birdsong on November 4, 2012 at 4:30 p.m. All proceeds go to Birdsong Nature Center's operating fund. We offer our sincere thanks to the donors listed below!

- 1. Meteors and Muffins! Our neighbors, Randy and Marilynn Rhea, owners of Susina Plantation, are offering this unique prize. They will invite four winning couples (one couple per ticket) to observe the Leonid meteor shower at Susina, starting at 4AM on November 17 (Saturday morning). Enjoy friends around the campfire while we watch falling stars. The waxing crescent moon will be gone by morning so we'll have beautiful dark skies. Rainy or cloudy? No worries – at 7AM we'll have breakfast and a tour of the Big House. Value: Priceless!
- 2. Two Tickets to the Patron Party at the Plantation Wildlife Arts Festival The Plantation Wildlife Art Festival, held annually in Thomasville in November, has become one of the south's premier art festivals and exhibits some of the highest quality nature art, sculpture and photography in the region. Anyone interested in art or nature should not miss it. The Festival's Patron Party, held on Friday, November 16, 2012 at 7PM is a very special private opportunity for guests to see the entire exhibit before it is open to the public and to meet and mingle with the artists and sponsors. Tickets donated by friends of Birdsong. Value: $125 per ticket.
- 3. Seasonal Natural Arrangement You may recall seeing some beautiful natural centerpieces on our serving tables at our special events in the last few years. They were created by our neighbor and friend Kathleen "Galbaby" Scott. Her arrangements are imaginative, stunning, and sometimes whimsical works of art! She has agreed to create one especially for this raffle. It will be designed using natural materials found locally, and she will give the winner a personal instruction session on how to modify this long-lasting arrangement so it may be used seasonally for various holidays, Christmas, the arrival of fall or spring, and so on. Value: Priceless!
- 4. Old-fashioned Children's Swing, created by Claudia Mason, of Claudarondacks Furniture. Delight the child in your life, no matter what their age, with a simple and beautiful wooden swing. Doesn't that bring back memories? Value: Priceless!
